In our classroom/ school we feel....

Connected (In which way we feel “connected” in our classroom/ school?)

When we feel like being at home. We feel a group when we discuss openly with our teacher, through group activities and when we cooperate. We feel special whenever we are treated with respect and compassion.

Accepted

Feeling of acceptance and respect (What is that in our class/ school that makes us feel safe and reinforces the feeling of respect and acceptance based on our individual needs?)

Respected

They must respect and encourage us. To discuss and solve our problems, play together and being friends is vital. We express our need for attention and we receive it.

Empowered (Which are our strengths as class/ school?)

The most important element is cooperation and offering help. We love each other and we are a team, closely related to our teacher, through a sense of humour and dialogue. We can face everything.

Discovering our strengths (In which way our class/ school contributes to the development and evolution of our own strengths?)

By improving ourselves, discovering our talents and by boosting our self-esteem through activities and games, conversation and lessons.
